

Contacts: Rod Graff, rod@dream-2-reality.com
Laurie Mann, laurie@dream-2-reality.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Apex Artist Laura Kelly Donates Logo to Dream-2-Reality, a Local Non-Profit

Cary, N.C. (March 16, 2009) Nationally renowned artist Laura Kelly, who owns Laura Kelly Designs & Licensing in Apex, has designed and donated a logo for Dream-2-Reality (D2R), a newly established local non-profit that collects holiday gifts for at-risk children and plans to provide additional assistance to these children throughout the year. The organization serves children referred by approved agencies such as the N.C. Department of Health and Human Services.

“We are excited that artist Laura Kelly has donated her talent to design the logo for Dream-2-Reality to show her support for our efforts in turning ‘dreams into realities’ for these disadvantaged kids,” says D2R President Rod Graff. “Her art conveys our message as a charitable organization perfectly.”

Kelly is known for her charitable contributions and was more than happy to provide Dream-2-Reality with this whimsical logo, depicting children holding dream-filled balloons. “All children have a birthright to be successful and have their dreams come true,” she says. “Happily ever after is for everyone.”

To learn more about Laura Kelly Designs & Licensing, visit <http://www.shoplaurakelly.com>. To learn more about Dream-2-Reality, visit <http://www.dream-2-reality.com>. Companies, organizations and groups interested in supporting the D2R throughout the year can contact the organization via the website.

###